

Portraiture

LindaPellingPhotography

It's said, every picture tells a story...

Think about that for a moment while you consider your own pictures. Celebrations, birthdays, anniversaries, holidays, good times; a photograph is so much more than a moment in time.

If you've decided to have some portraits taken for a family gathering, an anniversary, or just for fun, either at your own venue or in our studio, then call us to see how we can help.

Choosing the right photographer to capture those moments is important, so look around and consider the style that suits you best.

A smile requires less effort than a frown...

... so be lazy. Great portraits are not about sitting there looking formal, but relaxing and enjoying the experience too. A great photographer helps in more ways than you may think, so bring the kids, the grandparents, second cousins, the cat, the neighbours and anyone else, and let me shoot you.

There is no sitting fee, so you only pay for the items you want. Prints can be ordered at the following prices;

Photobooks

If you would like to create a collection of pictures, then the photobook is a popular choice. The images are printed into a beautifully presented hard cover book with a dust jacket, and you can also include captions and text.
